This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ZARA, THE GYPSY.

☞ SUNG WITH GREAT SUCCESS BY ANNIE PIXLEY.

A gypsy has no care, —
Beware!
I 'm a gypsy maid
From the mountain glade,
With a heart as free as a babbling rill;
'Neath the forest shades,
When the sunlight fades,
There I hear the night-bird's trill.

CHORUS.

Come, love, sweet love,
This is the song he 's singing,
Come back! come back!
Sorrow my heart is wringing!
Joy shall be thine
If thou be mine, —
Come, for I 'm lonely waiting.
No love for me!
I am a maiden free!

A gypsy has no care, —
Beware!
I 've a happy home
In the mountain glade,
Where the hawthorn blooms and the wild rose fades,
Where the eagle rests
With his feathered throng,
Where the lone bird sings his song.

Soprano in E flat, 40 cts. Contralto in C, 40 cts. Waltz, arranged by C. D. Blake, 35 cts.

OLD OCEAN, POUND.

A GRAND SONG FOR BASS, BARITONE, OR CONTRALTO.

Old ocean, pound on the rock-bound shore,
The sands they are fine, yet you pound them more;
Not even in sleep does thy pounding cease,
Nor Father's care can the dead release.
Pound! pound! pound! pound!
Waves of ocean pound.
Oh! I have hoped in vain
That he would come again!
But, alas! that cannot be! —
Forever gone from me,
Yes, forever lost to me,
For he sleeps beneath the sea.

The ship was struck by a tidal wave,
That sent all on board to a watery grave;
Not one of them left the tale to tell.
O God, still thou doest all things well.
Pound! pound! pound! pound!
Mighty ocean, pound!
Long years of hope and fear,
No words my heart to cheer;
Though I seek on earth in vain,
We shall meet in heaven again.

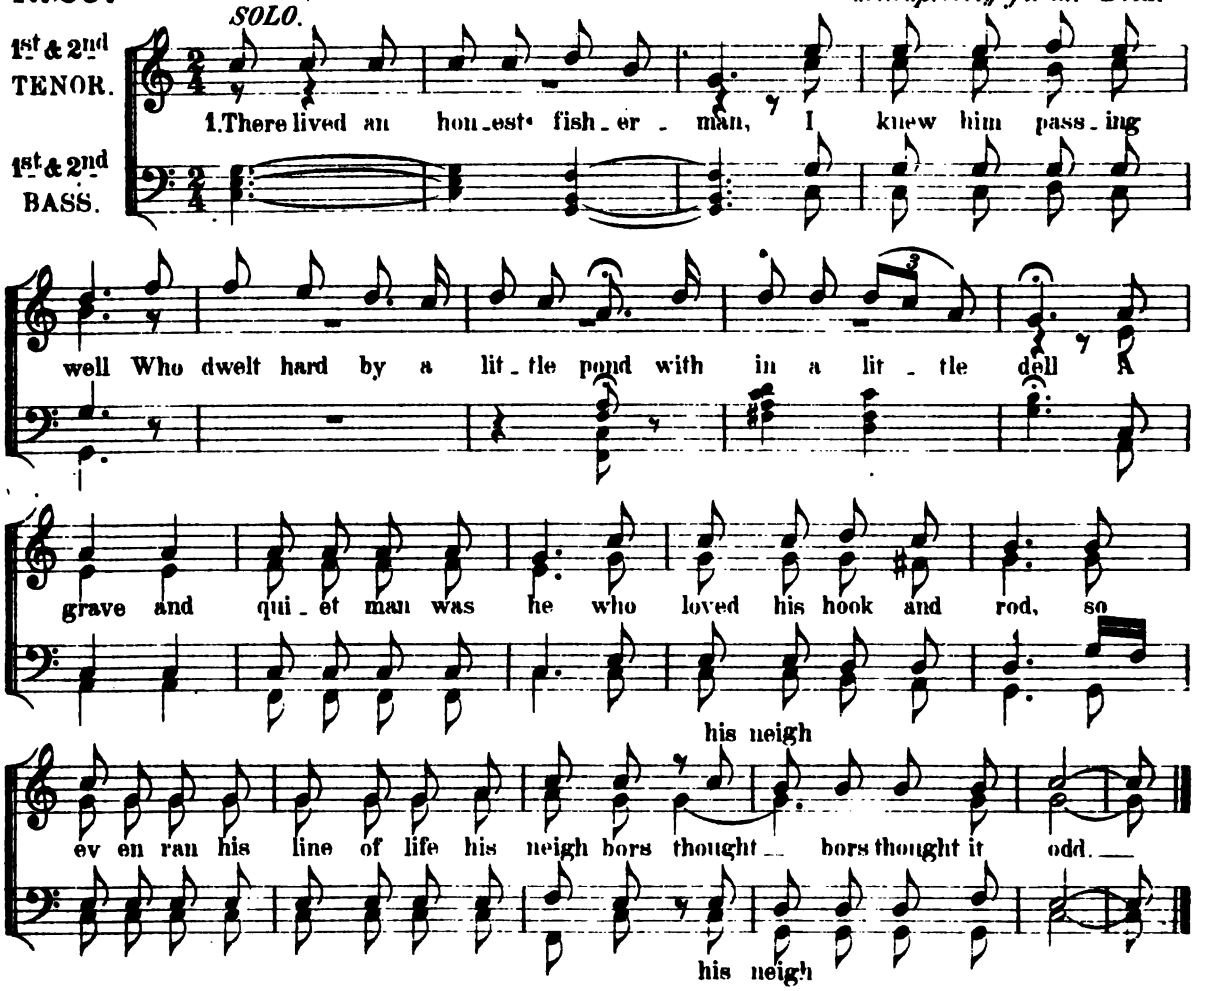
The Stiff cold water man.

No. 29.

S. P. CHEENEY.
arr. expressly for this Book.



2 For science and for books, he said
He never had a wish,-
No school to him was worth a fig,
Except a school of fish.
He ne'er aspired to rank or wealth,
Nor cared about a name,-
For though much famed for fish was he,
He never fished for fame.

3 All day this fisherman would sit
Upon an ancient log,
And gaze into the water, like
Some sedentary frog:
With all the seeming innocence,
And that unconscious look,
That other people often wear
When they intend to "hook!"

4 To charm the fish he never spoke,-
Although his voice was fine;
He found the most convenient way
Was just to drop a line!
And many a gudgeon of the pond,
If they could speak to-day,
Would own with grief, this angler had
A mighty taking way!

5 Alas! one day this fisherman
Had taken too much grog,
And being but a landsman, too,
He couldn't keep the log!
'Twas all in vain with might and main
He strove to reach the shore,
Down-down he went, to feed the fish,
He'd baited oft before!

6 The jury gave the verdict that
'Twas nothing else but gin
That caused the fisherman to be
So sadly taken in;
Though one stood out upon a whim,
And said the angler's slaughter,
To be exact about the fact,
Was clearly gin-and-water!

7 The moral of this mournful tale,
To all is plain and clear,-
That drinking habits bring a man
Too often to his bier;
And he who scorns to "take the pledge,"
And keep the promise fast,
May be, in spite of fate, a stiff
Cold water man at last!

For mixed voices. Selected, adapted, and compiled by C. A. White. For choral societies, choruses, conventions, and the home circle. Taken from the works of the best known authors of Europe and America, both secular and sacred, varied both in style and grade. Mr. White's long experience as publisher and author enables him to judge what is needed, and to select only that which is available for chorus and quartette singers. It contains about 180 pages, octavo size, printed on good paper, handsomely bound in board covers, and, taken as a whole, is certainly one of the most desirable of music books for chorus or quartette singers yet published. Societies selecting this book will make no mistake. Price 75 cents. Sample copy sent on receipt of 60 cents. Send for a copy and satisfy yourself.

THE CONVENTION GIFT.

A collection of sacred and secular music for singing schools, conventions, academies, colleges, choirs, and the home circle, consisting of musical notation and exercises, four-part songs, glees, quartettes, hymn-tunes, sentences, anthems, and chants. By Leonard Marshall.

PART FIRST. — ELEMENTARY DEPARTMENT.

This department, it is believed, will commend itself to teachers as a very convenient and satisfactory arrangement for elementary classes.

PART SECOND. — GLEES AND FOUR-PART SONGS.

These are written and arranged in an easy and pleasing style, and will prove to be an interesting and profitable feature for singing-school practice as well as for concerts and public performances.

PART THIRD. — HYMN-TUNES.

A goodly number of church-tunes, in a variety of metres, have been inserted, which are varied and complete, well adapted to singing-classes, choirs, and societies.

PART FOURTH. — ANTHEMS AND SENTENCES.

Great care has been taken in the arrangement of this department. It is believed that for beauty and excellence the anthems and sentences in this collection cannot be surpassed.

With these brief explanatory remarks, the "Convention Gift" is submitted to the public with the hope that it may prove a valuable addition to the list of books of this description already published.
